1. SP Board:

Creating a Scrum project for Saucedemo tasks.

Adding a team member to the Scrum project.

Inviting members to collaborate on the project.

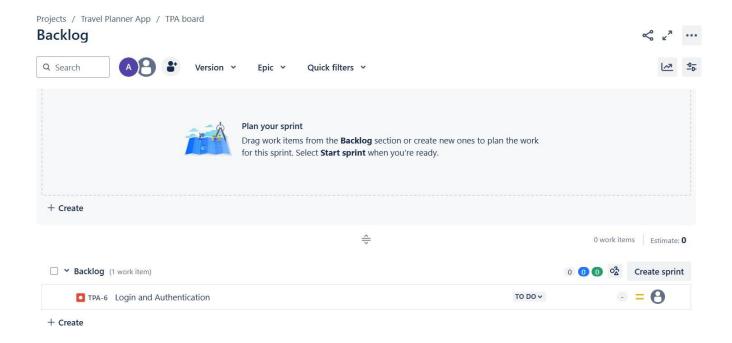

2. SP List:

Epic: Saucedemo Project

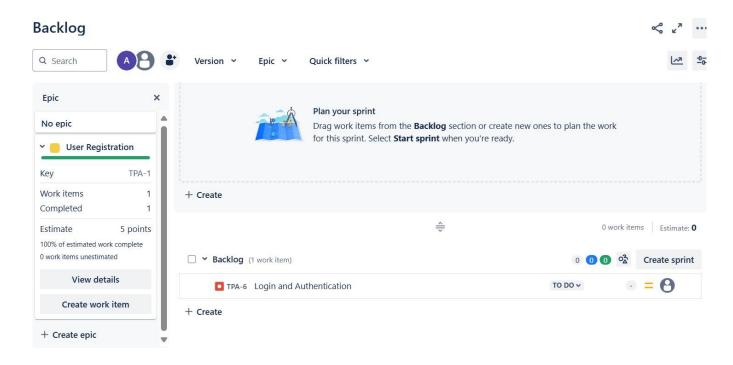

Sprint List:

- Created 3 Stories covering:
- Login Page
- Inventory Page
- Cart Page

Viewing and managing the Product Backlog in Jira.

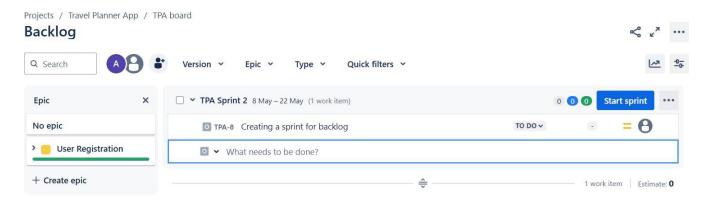

Creating Epics and User Stories for project tasks.

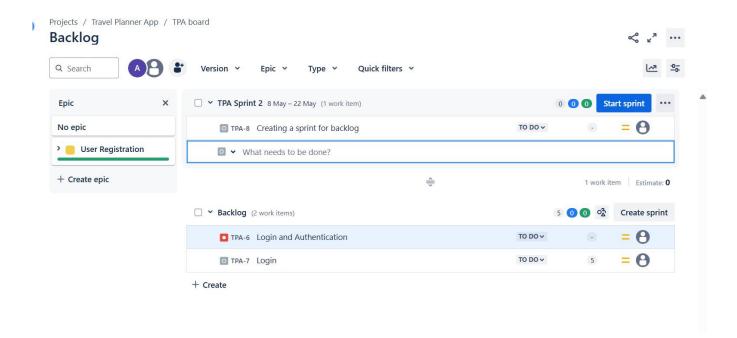

Estimating Story Points for each User Story.

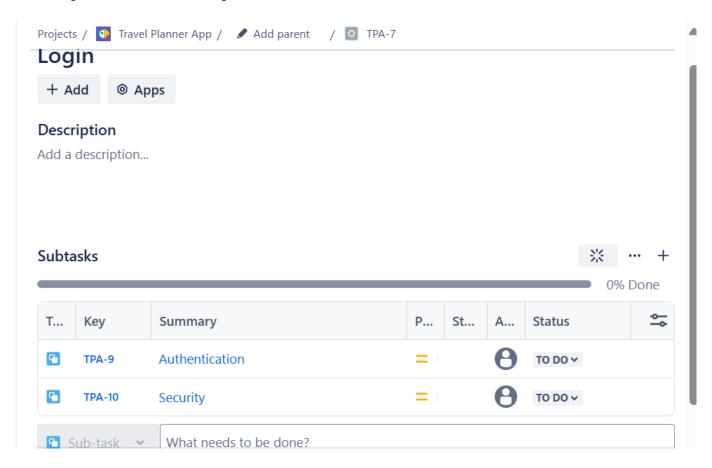

Creating a Sprint to organize the stories.

Sprint Planning Board showing stories and tasks.

Breaking down work into manageable tasks.

3. Test Case Design for Saucedemo:

Test Case Template:

- Test Case ID (e.g., TC-SWAG-001)

- Test Case Name (e.g., Login with Valid Credentials)
- Description (Detailed explanation of the test)
- Preconditions (What needs to be in place before the test)
- Steps (Detailed actions to perform)
- Test Data (Input values)
- Expected Result (What should happen)
- Actual Result (What actually happens during the test execution)
- Status (Pass/Fail)

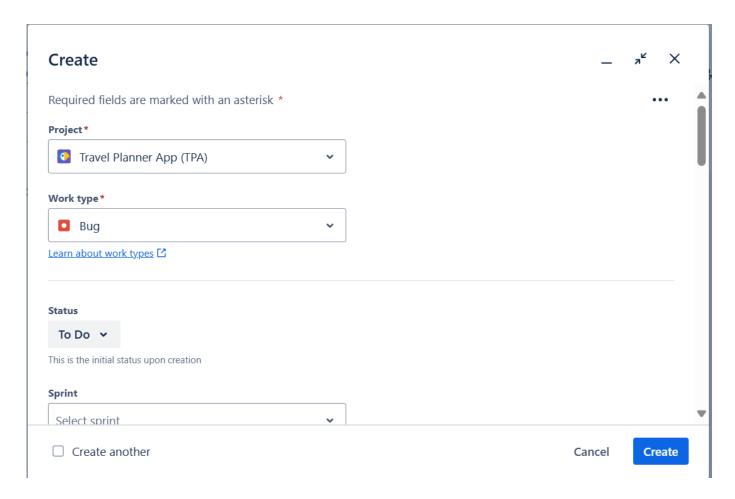

Designing test cases using Zephyr/Xray tools.

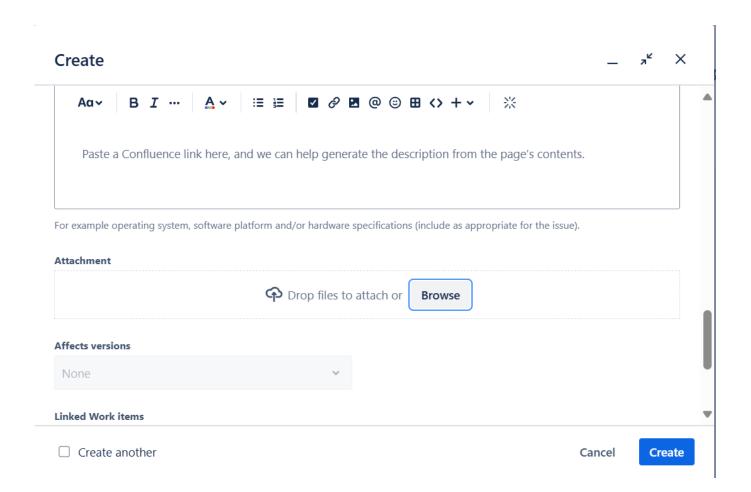

4. BUG Report (BUG-SWAG-001):

One-line description: The application allows checkout with an empty cart.

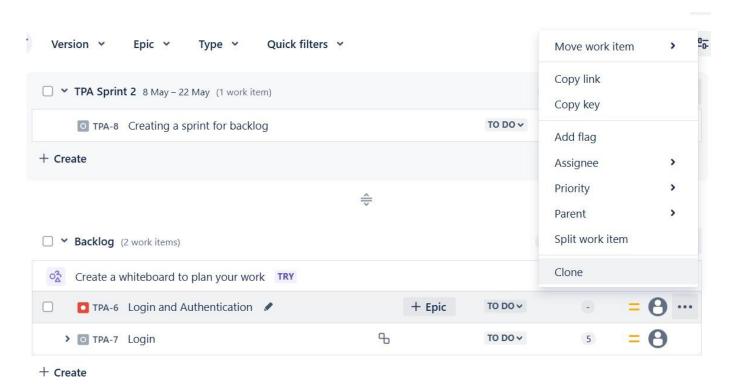

Creating a new issue for tracking defects or tasks.

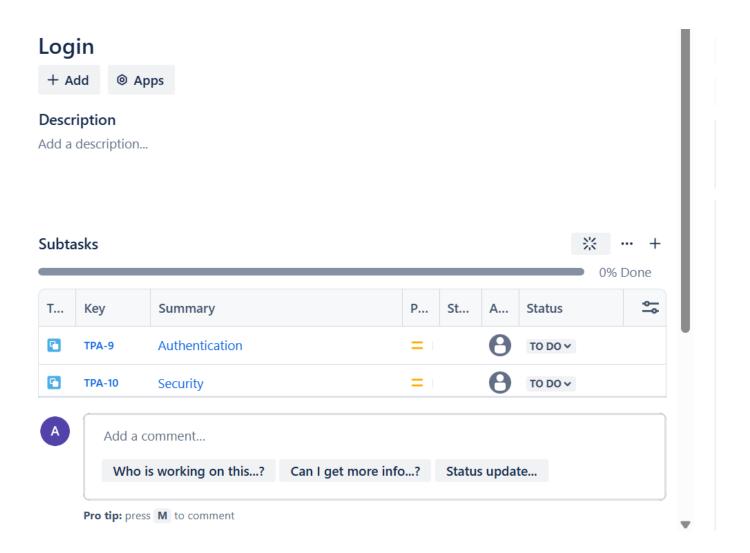

Attaching files to an issue for reference.

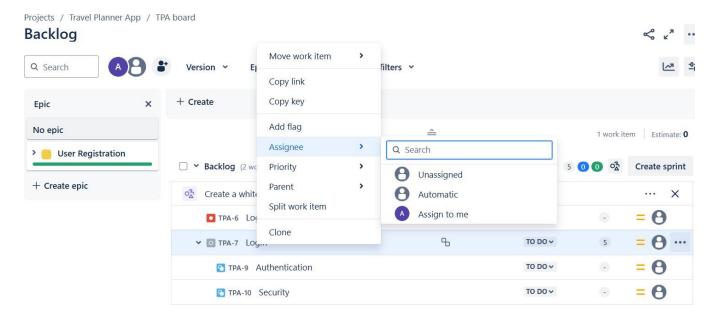

Cloning an existing issue to create similar tasks.

Adding comments and editing issue details.

Linking issues to relate dependencies.

Logging work hours against tasks.

Time tracking

No time logged

Time spent	Time remaining ①

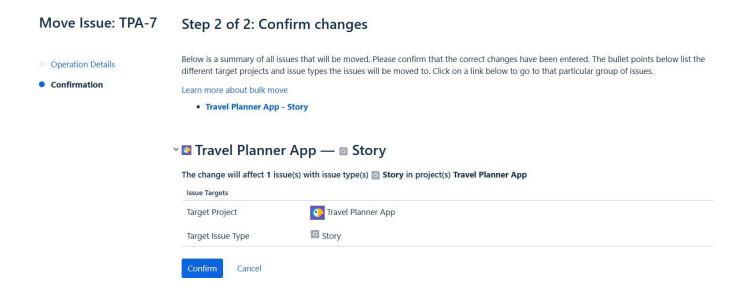

Use the format: 2w 4d 6h 45m

- w = weeks
- d = days
- h = hours
- m = minutes

Save

Cancel

Moving issues across workflow statuses.

Viewing history of changes in an issue.

More fields

Original 0m estimate

Time tracking

No time logged

Include subtasks

Components None

Sprint None

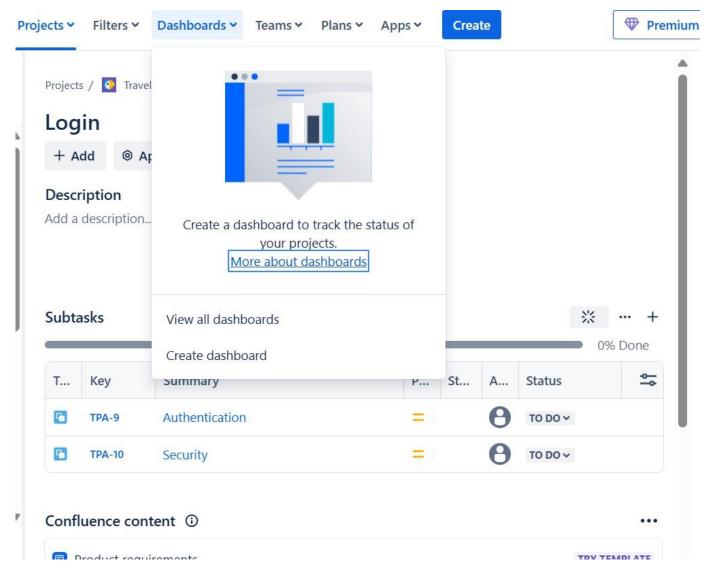

Team None

Fix versions None

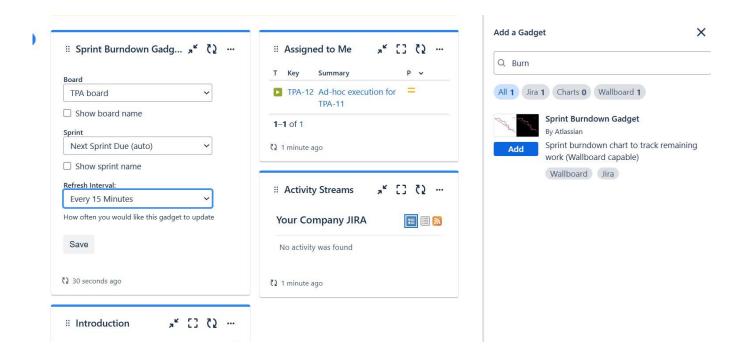

Parent None

5. Saucedemo Dashboard:

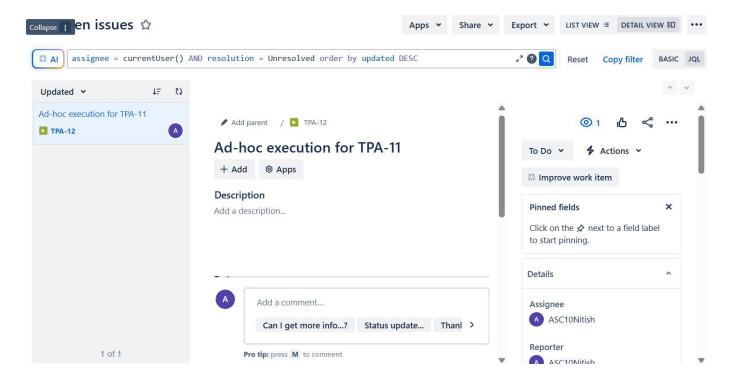

Customizing Jira Dashboard to suit project tracking needs.

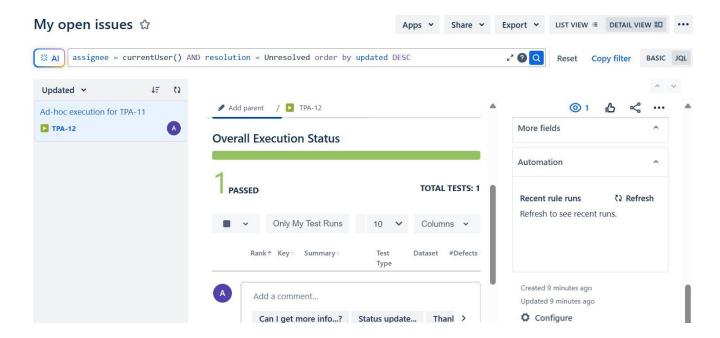

Adding gadgets to Jira Dashboard for better visualization.

6. Saucedemo Filters:

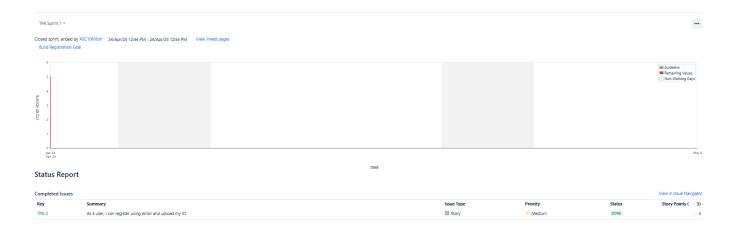

Saving a search filter for frequent queries.

7. Saucedemo Reports:

Accessing the reports section for analytics.

Viewing the Burndown chart for Sprint progress.

Viewing the Burnup chart for monitoring completed work.

Analyzing the team's performance using Velocity charts.

